

At Branson R-IV Schools we use digital learning to personalize learning through Blackboard and enVision Math, meet Common Core State Standards, administer online assessments such as NWEA, and make data-driven decisions using those assessments. It is a struggle for our school district and others in southwest Missouri to build and maintain networks that meet the increasing needs of our students. Please increase the E-Rate funding level to meet the average demand level.